St. James's, March 21.

THIS Day the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, waited on his Majesty; and being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Houshold, presented to his Majesty the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to express our unfeigned Joy upon her Royal Highness's safe Delivery of a Princess; an Event which we consider as an additional Strength to the present happy Establishment in your Majesty's illustrious Family, and as a further Security for the Enjoyment of our excellent Constitution in Church and State.

And we beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity to congratulate your Majesty on the Success of your Majesty's unwearied Endeavours in procuring to this Nation the inestimable Blessing of Peace; in the Advantages of which none are more deeply interested than this your Majesty's ancient City, no less eminent for its extensive Commerce, than for its Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government. Permit us, Sir, to assure your Majesty, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, endeavour to render your Majesty's Reign easy and happy. And it shall be our constant Prayer, that your Majesty may long rule over a free and obedient People; and that the Blessings we and all your Majesty's Subjects enjoy under your mild and auspicious Government, may be for ever continued to us and our Posterity by your Majesty and your Royal Descendants.

To which Address his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this dutiful and affectionate Address, and for your Congratulations on the Increase of my Family. The Satisfaction you shew, on the Conclusion of the General Peace, is very agreeable to me; and you may be assured, that I shall always have the greatest Attention to the Trade and Commerce of my Subjects, and to the Interest and Prosperity of my loyal City of London.

They were received very graciously; and all had the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of the County of Sussex, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable Henry Pelham, Esq; and his Grace the Duke of Richmond, attended by the High Sheriff, and many other Gentlemen of the County, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Harcourt, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and they all had the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of the County of Sussex.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of the County of Sussex, assembled at the Assizes holden at East Grinsted, in and for the said County of Sussex, the Thirteenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord 1748, beg Leave to return your Majesty jeſty our ſincereſt Thanks for your paternal Care and Concern for the Welfare of your People, by putting an End to the late juſt and neceſſary War, by a ſafe and honourable Peace.

Your Majeſty has been ever attentive to the Welfare of your Subjects, which we of this County have particular Reaſon to acknowledge, and to expreſs our Gratitude for the late Inſtance of your Goodneſs, in enabling us to bring to ſpeedy and exemplary Juſtice, Men guilty of the moſt atrocious and unheard-of Crimes. God grant that ſuch Examples may put a Stop to that pernicious Practice of defrauding your Majeſty's Revenues, which hath been the Source of thoſe Crimes: Diſſolute Men have proceeded from Fraud to Force, and have entred into wicked Combinations, almoſt too ſtrong for the ordinary Courſe of Juſtice, to the Terror of peaceable Men, and to the Reproach and Danger of Government. As we hold ſuch Practices in Deteſtation, we do aſſure your Majeſty, we will, in our ſeveral Stations, contribute what lies in our Power to diſcourage and ſuppreſs them, and to bring the Offenders to condign Puniſhment.

Long, very long, may your Majeſty live to preſerve to us the Bleſſings we now enjoy; and may they ever be enjoyed by this Nation under your Royal Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Barneſtaple in the County of Devon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Bourchier Wrey, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paulet, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of your Town of Barneſtaple in the County of Devon, penetrated with a due Senſe of your Royal Wiſdom and Goodneſs, beg Leave to join in the common Joy upon the Reſtoration of univerſal Peace. And at the ſame Time that we preſume to approach your ſacred Preſence with theſe Congratulations, grant us, Sir, to expreſs the ſecret Satisfaction we have felt, when we repreſented to ourſelves the Firmneſs of your Royal Mind, alternately refuſing the inglorious Allurements of Tranquillity (while the Proſpect of Force, united to the moſt righteous Cauſe, could promiſe the Attainment of your great Ends) and accepting the offer'd Terms of an honourable Peace, when the Fate of War, by the Inactivity of your Allies, become a Burthen too heavy for us to bear.

The Arts of Peace, exerted in the Manner your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to point out to your People, will moſt effectually heal the many Sores of War, whence juſt now emerged, we already feel the happy Influence of your moſt gracious Government.

Long may you live the indulgent Father of a free and grateful People! Long may you live the brave Protector of the Liberties of Europe! Let the Annals of future Times record you the Titus of Mankind! and may your Royal Progeny ſucceed to your Throne and Virtues to our lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Tenby in the County of Pembroke, has been preſented to his Majeſty by William Owen, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Pembroke, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Paulet, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiff and Burgeſſes of the ancient Corporation of Tenby in the County of Pembroke.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival to your Britiſh Dominions, and to expreſs our ſincere Joy and Thankfulneſs for the happy Reſtoration of publick Peace, contrived with ſo peculiar a Regard to the Honour and Intereſt of theſe Kingdoms, and conducted and brought to Perfection by a Succeſſion of ſuch firm, vigorous and wiſe Meaſures, as give the moſt diſtinguiſhed Proofs of your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Care for the Happineſs of your People.

Where ſo many different Claims were to be ſettled, and ſo many jarring Intereſts to be reconciled, Nothing ſhort of your Majeſty's great Capacity and Wiſdom could have brought Matters to ſo fair an Iſſue, and ſo much to the general Satisfaction of Europe.

May all your loving Subjects and Allies long enjoy the Benefit of your Majeſty's Labours; and may the Power of holding a Balance in Europe be always fixed to your Majeſty and your Royal Iſſue on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

This we have the moſt full and agreeable Proſpect of anſwering our Wiſhes by the Succeſſion ceſſion of the Crown in your Majeſty's [illegible]al Progeny, who, formed by your Precepts, and animated by your Example, will continue to preſerve to this Nation the Bleſſings of Civil and Religious Liberty to all future Ages, on the Foundation of which we can only expect to be great and reſpected abroad, and a flouriſhing and happy People at home.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation, the Firſt Day of March 1748, and in the Twenty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.
